Pipilotti Rist is a visual artist. She is best known for creating experiential video art and installation art that often portray self-portraits and singing. Her work is often described as surreal, intimate, abstract art, having a preoccupation with the female body. Her artwork is often categorized as feminist art. Rist used to describe her feminism: "Politically," she says, "I am a feminist, but personally, I am not. For me, the image of a woman in my art does not stand just for women: she stands for all humans. I hope a young guy can take just as much from my art as any woman". This video shows some professional people's thoughts of Rist's works. It also has the Pipilotti Rist's own word. She explained her ideas of her work then when people see her work would be more understand the metaphor in her artwork.
